

Employment Verification Form

The following form should be completed by a human resources representative or a supervisor from the applicant's current place of employment. Information collected from this form will help the Graduate School verify employment status and scholarship eligibility.

The Henriatta Tiri Selle Scholarship is designed to support UMB collaborators based outside the U.S. People fitting into this category include:

- Staff of Maryland Global Initiatives Corporation (MGIC) international branch and affiliate country offices
- UMB-associated local organization staff, e.g. BUMMHI, Ciheb-Kenya, IHV-Nigeria, and Ciheb-Zambia
- Staff working for implementing partners who have a subaward or contract from a UMB funded-initiative (in a non-US setting), e.g. CVD-Mali
- International collaborators who have worked with UMB faculty and staff for two or more years on a joint project, e.g., a research, service delivery, or educational exchange.
