

Is there a Paramedic in the Neighborhood?

It's in no one's best interests for a patient with a serious illness to feel the need to bolt off to the local Emergency Department.

We all use our best pre-emptive strategies to prevent this from happening, but sometimes the patient's needs escalate.

You don't want to miss this podcast titled "Implementation of a Community Paramedicine Program in Hospice and Palliative Care," as described by Christina McCurdy at Community Hospice and Palliative Care, Jacksonville, FL.
